LET THE MAIL BEGIN!

DRAWING BY CHISTAL VERNICIA,
AGE 10

Hi, welcome to the BLOCK PARTY letters page! This is your space to talk amongst yourselves and show off your artwork. I'm Johnny DC, your bud on the Block! This month, we have a lot of cool letters and drawings from POWERPUFF GIRLS fans. The Girls don't have their own comic book anymore, but they're big stars on this Block!

DRAWING BY KATE CLARKE,
ALMOST 6

Duana Johnson from New York sent some story ideas for all of our BLOCK PARTY characters. Unfortunately, DC Comics does not read or accept unsolicited submissions of ideas. Really — that's what it says in the teeny-teeny print at the bottom of the last page of each comic book. So even if you send brilliant stuff (and you do), I can't use it — I can't even READ it! But it's cool to ask for things you'd like to see — like more COURAGE stories, or EO, EDO 'N' EDO! on a surprise trip, or the return of the Powerpunk Girls. Thanks, Duane!

DRAWING BY DIANA ALMANZA,
AGE 11

Dear Powerpuff Girls,

I think your shows and comics are so cool. Since I'm such a fan, I decided to draw you girls and me as if I were a Powerpuff Girl. My color would be purple and my special power would be that I could read the minds of people, monsters, and animals' minds. My character is just as sweet as Bubble, but don't let her fool you. She is as mean as Blossom. She can read minds and also blow things up. Love, Diana

Whoops. Bubbles saw me. Her big blue eyes turned into tears as she walked. "What about me? Aren't I heroic?" No one could save her down until a monster almost stepped on Pokey Oaks Kindergarten and she had to go knock it out and fly it back into outer space. Blossom says hello. — Johnny DC

DRAWING BY KIMMY ARROW

Hi,
My daughter Kelly is seven years old. She loves the PPG. Blossom is her favorite. Kelly is a strong-willed redhead, just like Blossom. She loves the PPG comic books and uses her own money to buy them.

Thank you, Little girl hero!
